EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

One of the fundamental positions held by the CBE is a high view of Scripture.<sup>1</sup> While spiritual gifts and natural abilities contribute to the success of the ministry, we recognize that the Church functions as God intended only as it submits to the authority of God and acts under the direction of the Holy Spirit. We believe that God has given us direction in His Word concerning the proper functioning of the Church. We also believe that it is unwise to deviate from God's Word in any area, regardless of cultural norms, political pressures, or convenience.

We believe that we can only have life and bear fruit as we abide in the True Vine, Jesus Christ, the Word of God. The standards that CBE has established come from what was once a nearly universal understanding of Scripture. The CBE believes that education is valuable in the development of ministers, but that its value can be truly appreciated only as we build on the solid foundation of the Word. The primary purpose of this educational opportunity is the ordination of elders and secondarily continuing education. We also welcome anyone who has a sincere interest in deeper spiritual growth to attend these classes.

GUIDELINES FOR PARTICIPANTS

For our purposes here, a student is anyone who seeks credit for completion of the course, either toward ordination or for CEUs. To encourage a class environment where all those present are supportive of the training goals, we may ask for an interview at the time of registration. The interview process is detailed in a later section. All those who desire to be a part of these classes will need to be approved by the CBE Preparation Committee. Following are some general guidelines:

1. While any person is welcome to attend, only men can receive credit as students. (II Timothy 2:2; I Timothy 3:2; Titus 1:6)
2. Anyone who wishes to receive credit cannot be divorced and remarried.
  - Jesus said that divorce was not part of God's original plan. (Matthew 19:8)
  - Paul said that the marriage bond is dissolved only when one partner dies. (Romans 7:2-3)
  - Jesus said that anyone marrying one who is divorced commits adultery. (Luke 16:18)
  - Jesus said that in order to gain eternal life, one cannot commit adultery. (Matthew 19:17-18)
3. We ask that attendees dress in good taste. Clothing should be modest and non-offensive. We request that no jewelry be worn. Women should wear a dress or skirt of sufficient length to cover the knees. Let us seek to glorify God by our appearance, rather than ourselves. (I Timothy 2:9-10; I Peter 3:3-4)
4. Since the course material has been developed primarily for ministry candidates, and secondarily for ministers seeking CEU's, we want to caution any female attendees to conduct themselves in a reserved manner, not dominating discussion, and limiting input in class unless it is solicited by the instructor. This policy is not meant to discourage women from attending, but to uphold the principle of male leadership. (I Corinthians 14:34-35; I Timothy 2:11)

GUIDELINES FOR COURSE MATERIAL

1. Fifteen hours of interactive learning time which includes the class sessions (lecture, discussion, homework review, devotional time, etc.) and dialogue with a mentor and/or resource person to discuss assignments or projects related to course content. (I Timothy 2:2)
2. Two hundred fifty to five hundred pages of reading may be assigned. We want the instructors to have freedom to adjust reading requirements based on content and value. Reading can include entire books as well as specific articles and sections.
3. One or more major assignments should be required along with several smaller ones. These may include book reports, research papers, interviews, sermon manuscripts, etc. Assignments integrating work with ministry are especially desirable.
4. A “Course Affirmations” form will be provided by the instructor to students seeking credit. The form should be returned to the instructor upon completion of the course. The instructor will then provide any comments of evaluation and return the form to the student. A copy of the form will also be sent to the student’s ordaining body as a conformation of his work completed.

TRAINING CREDIT

The “Course Affirmations” form will fulfill the purpose of a credit certificate. Ministry training credit is contingent upon approval by attendee’s governing body. Courses are designed to encourage high academic standards while upholding the truth of God’s Word.

Ordained ministers may audit the course for personal growth and continuing education. Upon request CBE will issue a CEU certificate.

INTERVIEW

Our interview process is intended to approve candidates for class participation and not to evaluate a candidate's ministry capabilities. The interview will begin with a request for some general information from the candidate so that we can become better acquainted.

The questions may include:

- Overview of call/ personal call
- Family situation/ occupation
- Spiritual life including devotional life

Next, we will shift to a more personal or individual approach.

- Look at education already received
- Past and current ministry and church responsibilities
- View of Jesus Christ, the Church, and Scripture
- Determine reason for interest in class

We may also ask more specific questions based on answers to general inquires. We will also be attentive for special situations that may exist in order to accommodate students who may have difficulty working within our class structure.
